

West London Partnership for the 2012 Games - WEST LONDON 2012 OFFICER

Up to one year contract (maternity cover)

Salary: £42,086 - £47,096 Incl. of London Weighting

Location: Brunel University, Uxbridge, West London

The West London Partnership for the 2012 Games is looking for a dynamic team member to provide maternity cover and to drive and develop a 2012 legacy programme for West London.

The West London Partnership for the 2012 Games (WLP2012) has been working since 2005 to support the Games and secure a lasting legacy for those who live and work in West London.

You will be responsible for ensuring that West London contributes to the success of the London 2012 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games, whilst also securing a lasting legacy of sport, socio-economic, community and cultural benefits in the sub-region.

As the lead officer and contact point for the West London 2012 Programme, you will develop working relationships with major Olympic Games and Paralympic Games organisations in addition to the private, public and voluntary sectors.

You must be able to demonstrate effective partnership working within a multi-disciplinary environment.

The WLP for 2012 programme and post has been created in partnership for West London and is led by the West London Alliance councils (of Brent, Ealing, Hammersmith & Fulham, Harrow, Hillingdon and Hounslow), PRO-ACTIVE West London and Brunel University. The post will be based in the PRO-ACTIVE West London team at Brunel University.

Closing date: 12pm, 16 October 2009

Interviews: 4 November 2009

Vacancy Ref: MKA0086/2

For an informal discussion regarding these positions, please contact Simon Lister, Director, PRO-ACTIVE West London on 01895 266863.

Secondments for this position will be considered.

Application forms must be completed for all positions. A downloadable application form and further details are available at

<http://www.brunel.ac.uk/about/job>

