West London Business Corporate Responsibility Network Business & Society - New Models for Collaboration

12.00pm to 2.00pm, Wednesday 11th July 2007 at NEC Harlequins
Cost: Members Free / Non-members: £23.50 (including VAT)

West London Business is pleased to invite you to the next Corporate Responsibility Network, where you'll have the opportunity to network, listen to speakers, and discuss how you can apply the learning in your own organisation.

Outline Agenda

This meeting will be slightly different from previous ones - we will be having two award winning speakers followed by a creative workshop session.

Speakers

Duncan Goose, Founder of One Water, www.we-are-one.org.uk

Duncan has just been awarded Greatest Briton 2007 Campaigner in recognition of the work that One Water do - all the profits from the company's sale of bottled water go to build roundabout water pumps in South Africa www.playpumps.org

Peter Desmond, Director of Growth International www.growthinternational.com

Business in the Community Big Tick 2007 winners and short listed for the npower business Impact on Society Award for Small Companies. This award recognises the positive and sustainable impact of Growth International's corporate responsibility programme.

Creative Workshop Session

Duncan and Peter will share their stories about why they have adopted their particular approaches to their work in the UK and Africa. This will be followed by an interactive session which will allow delegates to contribute to the development of new ideas for One Water and Growth International. The aim of this session is to build on the success of these two companies and assist in the creation of new ideas of how companies can benefit their business and society at the same time.

Enterprise Insight

Closing remarks from a DTI-funded organisation which "inspires young people to make their ideas happen" including the "Make Your Mark with a Tenner" campaign which has encouraged many young people to develop an entrepreneurial way of thinking.

HARLEQUINS

West London Business Members can attend for free; the cost for non-members is £23.50 (including VAT). Places at this event are limited therefore we can only accept two representatives per company. To secure a place, bookings must be made in advance. If you would like to attend, please complete and return the enclosed booking form as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,
